Clarkson's captain Nick Dodge scored a goal for his 100th career point and then set-up the game-winner to help the Knights win their home-opener with a 2-1 overtime victory against UMass (10/12).

Exh. Game (October 6, 2007) - Att: 2,467
Cheel Arena, Potsdam, NY
Final Score: CLARKSON 5 - Acadia 2

A four-goal outburst in the first period started off the 2007-08 campaign in the right fashion for Clarkson in exhibition play. Last year's ECAC Hockey Tournament MOP, Chris D'Alvise led a balanced scoring effort with one goal and one assist. Nine different Knights recorded at least one point, including five different goal scorers. D'Alvise opened the scoring three minutes in followed by first-period goals from Scott Freeman, Tyrell Mason, and Mike Arciero. Grant Clitsome added the Knights' second power-play marker of the game early in the middle frame. Shea Guthrie posted two assists. David Leggio started in goal and posted eight saves on nine shots through 30:35 of play. Tim Potter made 18 saves, including 13 in the third period, while allowing one goal.

Game #1 (October 7, 2007) - Att: 3,400
Appleton Arena, Canton, NY
Final Score: St. Lawrence 3 - Clarkson 2

In the first official NCAA hockey game of the season, Clarkson and St. Lawrence put on an exciting show for a national TV audience on ESPNU, and the sellout crowd at Appleton Arena with the Saints finally prevailing for the one-goal win. The Knights, who held a 1-0 lead late in to the second period, surrendered three straight to the Saints to fall into a two-goal deficit midway through the third period. Late in the final frame, Clarkson pulled to within one when Matt Beca knocked in a backhand shot at 16:27. Linemates Steve Zalewski and Tim Marks assisted. Clarkson had a late power play, but could not come up with the equalizer. One of the Knights' top rookies and a veteran All-American combined for the game's first goal with just 1:33 remaining in the opening period. Freshman Scott Freeman set up Nick Dodge's 41st career goal and 99th career point. St. Lawrence, which had 15 shots on goal in the second period, finally got on the scoreboard with 4:32 left in the middle frame. The Saints then took the lead at 9:21, connecting on a 3-on-2 rush, and went up 3-1 four minutes later with another goal off a faceoff. Both goaltenders seemed in mid-season form with David Leggio making 27 saves, including 14 stops in the second period.

Game #2 (October 12, 2007) - Att: 2,560
Cheel Arena, Potsdam, NY
Final Score: CLARKSON 2 - UMass 1 OT

Nick Dodge scored a goal for his 100th career point and then set-up the game winner to help Clarkson to the overtime win in its home opener. In a rematch of last year's NCAA East Regional opening-round game, Clarkson gained a measure of revenge by handing the Minutemen the overtime defeat. Last March, UMass dealt the Knights a 1-0 overtime loss. Fifty-nine seconds into Friday's extra session, Dan Tuttle took a pass from Dodge at the left circle and fired off a quick shot to start the Knights' first celebration of the year. David Cayer also assisted, starting the rush on the deciding goal. A lengthy scoring drought against the Minutemen came to a close for Clarkson early in the third as the Knights tied the game 1-1. Fifty-three seconds into the period, Dodge connected off a pass from Steve Zalewski for his second goal of the season and 42nd career tally. Cayer picked up his first assist of the game on the power-play goal, which snapped a scoreless stretch of 118:43 against UMass. After a scoreless first period, the Minutemen took the lead at 13:45 of the second. The Knights out shot the Minutemen 33-19. David Leggio posted 18 stops, including nine over the opening 20 minutes. Clarkson was 1-of-5 on the power play and killed off both UMass man-advantage opportunities.

Game #3 (October 13, 2007) - Att: 2,599
Cheel Arena, Potsdam, NY
Final Score: CLARKSON 2 - Providence 0

A two-goal first-period effort was all the scoring the Golden Knights would need as they held off Providence behind the solid goaltending of David Leggio. Leggio picked up his fourth career shutout behind a 28-save performance as Clarkson, completed the weekend sweep of Hockey East foes at Cheel. Ranked 13th in the nation, Clarkson jumped out to a quick start, scoring 2:47 after the opening faceoff. Shea Guthrie started off the scoring, lifting in a backhand shot to finish off a breakaway for his first goal of the season. Dan Tuttle sent Guthrie in on the breakaway with a pass from center ice. Freshman Lauri Tuohimaa also assisted for his first collegiate point. The Knights made it 2-0, at 15:47, when Matt Beca knocked down a pass in front of the Providence goal and slipped a pass around a Friar defenseman to Steve Zalewski, who knocked in a shorthanded tally for his first goal of the year. Providence picked up its play over the final 40 minutes, outshooting the Green and Gold 19-10 in the final two periods, but Leggio, last season's ECAC Goaltender of the Year, was on top of his game turning aside all of the Friars' chances. For the game, Providence held a 28-20 shot advantage. Both teams were 0-of-3 on the power play.

Final Score: CLARKSON 5 - St. Lawrence 4 OT

Five different Golden Knights scored goals, capped off by Chris D'Alvise's overtime game-winner, a power-play marker at 1:26, as Clarkson overcame an early deficit to gain a thrilling win in the opening contest of the ECAC Hockey campaign. St. Lawrence, which held a 3-0 first-period lead, fell behind 4-3 late in the third before tying it with 37 seconds left in regulation after the Saints pulled the goaltender for the extra attacker. St. Lawrence gained the early momentum with three straight goals to hold a 3-0 first-period lead. With five minutes left in the second stanza, Clarkson got on the scoreboard when freshman defenseman Tom Pizzo scored his first collegiate goal to give the Knights life. Clarkson continued to gain the momentum in the third, and struck for three straight goals to take the lead. Tim Marks tallied a power-play marker at 1:46. Steve Zalewski followed at 13:13 and freshman Lauri Tuohimaa put the Green and Gold on top for the first time in the game at 14:41. Clarkson held a 34-27 advantage in shots. Leggio improved his record against St. Lawrence to 4-1 with a 23-save effort.

Final Score: CLARKSON 4 - Lake Superior 0

A complete 60-minute effort, featuring two goals in both the first and third periods, and a solid effort in goal by David Leggio lifted Clarkson to its first road win of the season. Leggio came through with his second shutout in the first five games of the season, and fifth career whitewash, with a 19-save effort, including eight stops in the second period. Steve Zalewski, with a 5-on-3 power-play goal, and Lauri Tuohimaa provided all the scoring the Knights would need in the first period. After several excellent scoring opportunities came up short for the Green and Gold in a scoreless second period, Clarkson sealed the win a pair of specialty-team goals over the final 20 minutes. Nick Dodge tallied unassisted on a slap shot from along the right boards for his sixth career shorthanded marker at 6:26. Chris D'Alvise, who also recorded an assist in the victory, closed out the scoring with his second goal of the season, a power-play marker at 12:41. Grant Clitsome recorded his second assist of the game. Clarkson posted 25 shots on goal, while allowing a season low 19 shots. The Knights finished 2-of-7 on the power play, while Lake Superior failed in five man-advantage attempts.

Game #7 (November 2, 2007) - Att: 2,643
Cheel Arena, Potsdam, NY
Final Score: CLARKSON 2 - Harvard 1

Tim Marks capped off a three-goal flurry in the opening 10 minutes as Clarkson defeated Harvard for the fifth straight time. The ECAC Hockey contest opened with plenty of offense, but soon turned into a defensive affair with the Crimson out shooting Clarkson, 26-22. David Leggio posted 25 saves, including 20 in the first 40 minutes to improve his record to 5-1. One minute into the first period, Clarkson grabbed the lead when Matt Beca knocked in a rebound off a shot from the point by defenseman Grant Clitsome. Junior defenseman Phil Paquet, playing on his first shift of the season, also assisted. Harvard came back to tie it with a power-play marker at 4:31. The Knights regained the lead at 9:28 of the first when Marks, from the bottom of the left circle, swept in a pass from behind the net by Steve Zalewski for the game-winner on his second goal of the year. Clarkson was 0-of-5 on the power play while Harvard went 1-of-5 with the man advantage.

Final Score: CLARKSON 4 - Dartmouth 3

The first career hat trick from Tim Marks helped Clarkson extend its home unbeaten streak to 18 consecutive games (14-0-4), including five straight wins this season. Trailing 2-0 midway through the first, the Knights ran off four unanswered goals to take control with a 4-2 lead after 40 minutes of play. Marks put Clarkson on the scoreboard at 13:12, putting in a rebound off of Matt Beca's attempt. The Knights hit stride in the middle frame with three more goals. David Cayer tied the game with a slap shot from the top of the right circle at 2:08. Marks completed his hat trick, scoring twice in a span of 4:18. At 9:15, Marks flipped in a shot for a power-play goal to put Clarkson in the lead. He followed with his 5th goal of the season at 13:33 when he took a pass in the slot from Chris D'Alvise and fired in a quick, low shot. Shea Guthrie picked up his second assist of the game on the eventual game-winner. Early in the third period, the Big Green got to within one, and with 65 seconds remaining, pulled the goaltender for the extra attacker, but could not get a shot on net in a bid to tie the game. Clarkson had a season-high 40 shots.

Final Score: Quinnipiac 3 - Clarkson 2

In a rematch of last year's ECAC Hockey Tournament championship game, Quinnipiac gained a measure of revenge by handing the Green and Gold their first conference loss of the season. Tied 1-1 through 40 minutes, the Bobcats out scored the Knights 2-1 in the final frame, with the game-winner on the power play with less than six minutes to play. Quinnipiac took a 1-0 lead late in the first before Clarkson tied it up midway through the second when Chris D'Alvise finished off a perfect feed in front from Shea Guthrie for his third goal of the year at 11:15. Lauri Tuohimaa also assisted. At 6:26 of the final frame, the Bobcats regained the lead, 2-1, but Clarkson came back with a goal by David Cayer to even the score with under 10 minutes to play. Scott Freeman found Cayer all alone in the slot where the senior fired a quick turn-around shot into the back of the net for his third goal of the year. Nick Dodge also assisted, freeing up the puck along the boards. Quinnipiac out shot the Knights 25-23. David Leggio posted 22 saves. Clarkson was 0-5 on the power play while the Bobcats were 1-of-7 with the man advantage.

Game #10 (November 10, 2007) - Att: 1,442
Hobey Baker Rink, Princeton, NY
Final Score: CLARKSON 6 - Princeton 2

Steve Zalewski became the first Golden Knight in over 10 years to record a four-goal game when he accomplished the feat at Princeton. Clarkson, which lost twice to the Tigers last season, dominated from the start with Shea Guthrie beginning the surge 3:01 after the opening faceoff. Zalewski followed with two goals, including the first power-play marker allowed by Princeton this year, as the Knights took a 3-0 first period lead. Zalewski added two more goals in a 2:18 span late in the second to complete his most productive career outing. After the Tigers got on the scoreboard at 17:21, freshman Scott Freeman tallied his first collegiate goal with 42 seconds remaining in the middle frame to give Clarkson a commanding 6-1 lead through 40 minutes. David Leggio was called upon to make 33 saves.

Game #11 (November 16, 2007) - Att: 2,380
Cheel Arena, Potsdam, NY
Final Score: CLARKSON 1 - Yale 0

David Leggio posted his third shutout of the season and sixth career whitewash behind a 24-save effort to backstop Clarkson to its sixth straight win over Yale. David Cayer tallied the lone goal of the contest. Clarkson, with two power-plays in the scoreless first period, controlled the opening 20 minutes with an 11-8 shot advantage. At 13:53 of the middle frame the Knights broke the scoreless deadlock. Chris D'Alvise found Cayer all alone at the right post where the senior lifted in a shot top shelf into the far corner for his fourth goal of the season and 96th career point. Defenseman Tom Pizzo also assisted. Clarkson overcame penalty trouble late in the second and early in the third as it killed off 69 seconds of a Yale two-man advantage. In a bid to tie the game, the Bulldogs pulled their goaltender for the extra attacker with 31 seconds left and the faceoff deep in the Clarkson zone, but managed just one long shot on net that Leggio easily turned away. The Knights out shot Yale 26-24. Leggio posted 10 of his stops in the third period.

Final Score: CLARKSON 4 - Brown 2

Chris D'Alvise scored twice on the power play and assisted on two goals to lead the Knights to their seventh straight win of the season at Cheel Arena. After a scoreless first period, the Green and Gold took control in the second stanza, connecting for three goals. Scott Freeman struck first, putting in a rebound off a shot from the point by rookie defenseman Bryan Rufenach for his second goal of the season. D'Alvise also assisted. Clarkson padded the lead with a pair of goals 33 seconds apart late in the middle frame. Eight seconds into a power play, D'Alvise finished off a passing combination from Nick Dodge and Matt Beca at 17:07. Lauri Tuohimaa made it 3-0 when he connected on a rebound off D'Alvise's shot in the slot at 17:40. Brown got on the scoreboard 16 seconds into the third with a power-play tally, but Clarkson regain the three-goal advantage at 3:38 with another quick strike on the power play as D'Alvise picked up his second goal of the contest. At 12:29, the Bears closed the gap to 4-2 with another power-play marker, but could not get any closer despite pulling the goaltender with 1:54 left in regulation.

Final Score: St. Cloud 4 - Clarkson 1

Despite out shooting 10th-ranked St. Cloud by nearly a 3-to-1 margin, Clarkson suffered its first loss at home this season. St. Cloud wasted little time getting on the scoreboard, connecting for a power-play goal 55 seconds after the opening faceoff. Another quick goal to start a period gave the Huskies a 2-0 advantage 45 seconds into the middle frame. Benefiting from three power play opportunities in the second period, the Knights had numerous quality chances to notch their first goal, out shooting St. Cloud 17-2 in the stanza, but perfect play from St. Cloud's goaltender, several block shots by the Huskies, and a little bit of bad luck kept the Knights from getting on the scoreboard. Clarkson's best chances came late in the period when they enjoyed 42 seconds of a two-man advantage. St. Cloud made it 3-0 at 2:12 of the third. Clarkson got on the scoreboard with less than five minutes to play on freshman defenseman Bryan Rufenach's first collegiate goal, connecting off an assist from David Cayer at 15:43. With just 0.1 seconds left on the clock the Huskies tallied into the empty net. Clarkson out shot the Huskies 33-13, including a 26-7 margin through the first 40 minutes. The Knights were 0-of-7 on the power play, while St. Cloud was 1-of-3.

Final Score: CLARKSON 3 - St. Cloud 2

Nick Dodge scored two goals and assisted on another as Clarkson snapped a five-game losing skid to St. Cloud. Dodge broke a 2-2 tie and gave the Knights' their only lead of the weekend when he connected for the game-winner with just over five minutes left in regulation. During a flurry in front of the Huskies' crease, Dodge finished off the hard work around the net by Matt Beca and Shea Guthrie when he jammed in a loose puck at the side of the goal for his second goal of the game at 14:32. St. Cloud pulled its goaltender for the extra skater with one minute left, but David Leggio, with strong support from his defense, was able to keep the Huskies from tying the score. Leggio finished with 30 saves, including nine in the final frame. After a scoreless first period, the teams traded specialty-team goals in the second stanza for a 2-2 tie through 40 minutes of play. After the Huskies tallied shorthanded, Dodge tied it up at 5:29 with his second shortie of the season. While skating on a lengthy two-man advantage, St. Cloud regained the lead with a 5-on-3 power-play marker at 10:54. The Knights, however, came right back with a power-play tally from Guthrie at 15:06.

Game #15 (December 1, 2007) - Att: 3,400
Appleton Arena, Canton, NY
Final Score: St. Lawrence 4 - Clarkson 2

Despite two power-play goals from Grant Clitsome Clarkson lost to its archrival in the final game before the break. The Knights could never get on top as the Saints took advantage of numerous Clarkson mistakes. Just 1:54 into the game, St. Lawrence went on top before Clarkson tied it up on Clitsome's first goal of the year, a power-play marker, at 10:46. The Knights were on the verge of another power-play opportunity about four minutes later, but a hitting after the whistle penalty nullified a Clarkson man-advantage chance, and put both teams four aside. The Saints made the most of the swing in momentum and went ahead 2-1 at 15:14. The Saints grabbed a 3-1 lead midway through the middle frame. Just 1:42 into the third, the Knights' made it a one-goal game with Clitsome's second goal of the night. St. Lawrence regained the two-goal at 11:58. With 90 seconds left to play in regulation, the Knights pulled goaltender David Leggio for the extra attacker, but despite several excellent scoring opportunities, Clarkson could not get any closer. Both team had 39 shots. Leggio made a season-high 35 saves, including 16 in the first period.

Game #16 (December 28, 2007) - Att: 3,000
Germain Arena, Estero, FL
First Round - Florida College Classic
Final Score: Maine 5 - Clarkson 2

Clarkson's return to action after a 27-day layoff did not go as planned as the Knights fell in the opening round of tourney play in Florida. Clarkson, playing shorthanded with four key players missing the game for violating team rules, never led against Maine, trailing 1-0 after the first and 4-3 through 40 minutes. The Knights lost another player midway through the first period when Lauri Tuohimaa left the contest after being penalized for a five-minute major and a game misconduct. The Black Bears capitalized on an ensuing two-man advantage at 12:35 to grab the lead. Just 28 seconds into the second period, Clarkson tied the game when Nick Dodge knocked in a rebound off David Cayer's shot from in tight. The Black Bears came back with two unanswered goals to take a 3-1 lead at 11:33. The Knights mounted a rally with two straight goals to tie the game 3-3 late in the middle frame as freshman Michael Kosziwka and Mike Arciero's tallied their first goals of the season. However, with just 53 seconds left in the second, Maine went back on top for a 4-3 lead.

Game #18 (January 5, 2008) - Att: 3,425
Cheel Arena, Potsdam, NY
Final Score: CLARKSON 4 - Boston College 2

Four different Golden Knights scored goals and David Leggio posted 29 saves as Clarkson extended its win streak over Boston College to 10 straight. Grant Clitsome, Shea Guthrie and Matt Beca paced the balanced offensive effort with one goal and one assist each as the Knights snapped out of a three-game winless slump (0-2-1) with their ninth home win of the season. The Eagles, who came into the North Country as one of the hottest teams in the country riding a five-game winning streak, scored first early in the opening frame, but Clarkson answered back with three straight goals to hold a 3-1 lead late in the middle frame. Clitsome started the outburst at 17:13 of the first, followed by Nick Dodge's shorthanded goals 80 seconds into the second period. Guthrie netted the game-winner at 16:46. Just 22 seconds later BC scored again to pull within one, but nine seconds into the final stanza, Beca tallied the Knights' fourth for the two-goal cushion. BC held a slight 31-30 edge in shots, but Leggio came through with one of his best games of the year. He had 14 of his 29 saves in the first period, and shut down the Eagles' top-ranked power-play unit with 11 stops while Clarkson was playing shorthanded.

Game #19 (January 11, 2008) - Att: 3,811
Thompson Arena, Hanover, NH
Final Score: Dartmouth 3 - Clarkson 1

The road woes continued for Clarkson as the Golden Knights dropped their sixth game of the season away from Potsdam. For the seventh straight game the Knights surrendered the opening goal to fall into the early deficit. After a scoreless first period, Dartmouth went on top at 9:16 of the second stanza, moments after killing off Clarkson's third power play of the contest. Clarkson's power play finally connected, snapping out of a 0-for-11 drought, when Steve Zalewski scored his team-high 9th goal of the season on a shot from the top of the right circle at 7:11 of the third. Matt Beca extended his point-scoring streak to six games by setting up the power-play marker. Shea Guthrie also assisted on the tying goal. The Big Green regained the lead at 16:28, and added an insurance goal, scoring into an empty net with 50 seconds remaining. Clarkson held a 37-35 shot advantage. David Leggio was strong in goal and finished with 32 saves, including 23 through the first 40 minutes. The Knights were 1-of-5 on the power play, and killed off both Big Green man-advantage opportunities.

Game #20 (January 12, 2008) - Att: 2,673
Bright Hockey Center, Cambridge, MA
Final Score: CLARKSON 4 - Harvard 2

Steve Zalewski recorded four points, including his second career hat trick, to lead Clarkson to its first road win since early November. Tied 2-2 late in the third period, Zalewski took a long pass at center ice from freshman defenseman Dan Reed and tallied on a quick wrist shot from the top of the right circle for the game-winner at 16:44. For Reed, that was his first collegiate point. Tyrell Mason also set up the goal with his second assist of the game. With 46 seconds remaining, Zalewski scored into the empty net for his third goal of the period, 12th goal of the season, and fourth point of the night. For the first time in eight games, Clarkson took the opening lead of a game. Chris D'Alvise put the Knights on top at 14:03 of the first period, knocking in his own rebound for his sixth goal of the season. Harvard tied the game at 12:11. Zalewski opened the third, connecting on a wrap-around attempt at 6:35 to put the Green and Gold on top 2-1. Just over three minutes later, Harvard tied the game again, but Zalewski made the most of his opportunities at the end to help the Knights win their sixth consecutive victory over the Crimson. David Leggio put in another solid effort in goal with a 31-save outing, including 27 saves through the first 40 minutes.

Game #21 (January 18, 2008) - Att: 2,246
Starr Rink, Hamilton, NY
Final Score: CLARKSON 1 - Colgate 1 ot

Despite 37 shots on net, including several Grade-A opportunities from some of their top scorers, Clarkson had to settle for a tie on the road. After a scoreless first period against Colgate, the Knights tallied their only goal when Steve Zalewski netted his team-high 13th goal of the season while on the power play midway through the second frame. Clarkson's leading goal scorer picked up a rebound at the side of the net off of Nick Dodge's tip-in attempt, and lifted in his 50th career goal at 8:13. Chris D'Alvise also assisted. Early in the third period, Colgate evened the score with its own power-play marker at 3:59, for the first man-advantage goal against the Knights in the last 19 opponent power-play attempts. Clarkson held a 25-13 shot advantage through the 40 minutes, but the Raiders owned a 12-11 edge in the third period, and out shot the Green and Gold 2-1 in the five-minute overtime session. David Leggio, who was denied his 50th career victory, finished with 26 saves. The Knights were 1-of-4 on the power play, while Colgate was 1-of-5 with the man-advantage.

Final Score: CLARKSON 4 - Cornell 2

Four different Knights provided the goals and David Leggio made 25 saves to record his 50th career win as Clarkson completed a three-point weekend in Central NY by gaining its first regular-season victory at Lynah Rink since March 6, 1999. A three-goal spurt in a five-minute span midway through the first period, gave the Knights a commanding lead and the early momentum against Cornell. Chris D'Alvise, Steve Zalewski and Shea Guthrie scored to put Clarkson in control just 12:08 into the contest. After putting just three shots on the Clarkson goal in the first period, Cornell came out with a stronger effort in the middle frame, but Leggio turned aside all eight shots he faced in the stanza to preserve the Knights' three-goal lead. The Big Red, benefiting from two power plays to start the third, fought their way back into the game with a pair of goals to cut the lead to one midway through final period. Cornell continued to pressure, but Leggio stood tall, and then with 45 seconds remaining, Tim Marks sealed the win with an empty-net score.

Final Score: CLARKSON 3 - Union 2

David Leggio was the difference in Clarkson's one-goal victory over a surging Union College squad, posting 31 saves as the Golden Knights improved their unbeaten streak to five games (4-0-1). Bidding for a weekend sweep in the North Country, Union came out strong in the first, but Leggio was in top form and turned aside all eight shots from the Dutchmen in the opening 20 minutes. Coming off his first collegiate goal in Friday's win over Rensselaer, Brandon DeFazio put the Knights on top midway through the first with David Cayer assisting at 12:26. The Dutchmen continued to pressure in the middle frame, out shooting the Green and Gold 19-8 in the period, and tied the game with a power-play goal on at 11:58. Clarkson regained the lead at 4:01 of the third when the Knights' leading scorer, Steve Zalewski, tipped in a pass from the point by Grant Clitsome for his team-high 15th goal of the season. At 14:52, Union made it 2-2 seven seconds after their power play ended. With less than four minutes to play Shea Guthrie came through with the game-winner when he picked up a rebound off of Chris D'Alvise's shot. Union, which saw its school-record winning streak come to an end at seven consecutive games, held a 33-27 shot advantage.

Final Score: Colorado College 5 - Clarkson 2

Clarkson twice held one goals leads against Colorado College, but the 6th-ranked Tigers rattled off four unanswered goals to gain the convincing victory in the first game of the weekend series out west. The Knights started off strong against the Tigers when Chris D'Alvise tallied just 1:58 after the opening faceoff, knocking in a rebound off defenseman Adam Bellows' shot from the point for his 9th goal of the year. Colorado College tied it at 12:49. David Cayer finished off a pass from Brandon DeFazio for a breakaway goal at 4:03 of the second, his sixth goal of the season, to put the Knights on top 2-1. After that the Tigers stormed back with two goals in the period to take a 3-2 lead after 40 minutes, and then scored on the power play and shorthanded in the final frame to run their unbeaten streak against Clarkson to 8-0-1. Colorado College held a distinct shot advantage, 42-17. David Leggio made a season-high 37 saves. The Knights, who did not go on the power play until there was 7:41 left in the game, were 0-of-2 with the man advantage. The Tigers went 1-of-5 on the power play.

Game #27 (February 8, 2008) - Att: 2,785
Cheel Arena, Potsdam, NY
Final Score: CLARKSON 4 - Cornell 1

In a showdown between the top two teams in ECAC Hockey, league-leader Clarkson, behind a 32-save effort from David Leggio, came out on top over second-place Cornell with its eighth consecutive victory against a league foe at Cheel Arena. The Big Red started the game strong, out shooting the Knights 6-0 in the opening four minutes, and held a 13-7 margin through the first period to take the initial lead with a power-play goal at 12:10. Behind four different goal scorers, the Knights rallied back to tie it late in the first, connected for the game-winner early in the second, and added two more goals in the third to extend their ECAC Hockey unbeaten streak to six games (5-0-1). Clarkson started its rally with an opportunistic goal by Scott Freeman, back in the lineup after missing the previous six games with an injury, at 15:34. Early in the second period, Nick Dodge broke out of a lengthy scoring drought for the game-winner at 3:41 for his first goal in nine games and his first league goal of the season. At 6:02 of the third, Matt Beca put the Green and Gold on top 3-1 with his third shorthanded tally of the season. Cornell pulled its goaltender for the extra skater with 1:50 to play, but Grant Clitsome scored into the empty net at 18:41 to seal Clarkson's first league sweep of the Big Red since 1998-99.

Along with a solid effort on the blueline, Grant Clitsome recorded a goal and an assist as Clarkson defeated Cornell 4-1 at Cheel Arena (2/8) to sweep the regular-season series against the Big Red for the first time since the 1998-99 campaign.

Game #28 (February 9, 2008) - Att: 3,014
Cheel Arena, Potsdam, NY
Final Score: CLARKSON 0 - Colgate 0 ot

Clarkson and Colgate continued their string of low-scoring defensive battles on Saturday. Featuring the past two Ken Dryden Awards winners, as ECAC Hockey's top goaltenders, the Golden Knights and Raiders skated to their fourth tie in their last five meetings, including three 1-1 draws during that span. League-leading Clarkson extended its unbeaten streak at Cheel Arena to 20 consecutive games after skating to its first scoreless draw since March of 1989. Last year's ECAC Goaltender of the Year, David Leggio faced just 15 shots to record his fourth shutout of the year and seventh career whitewash for Clarkson. Leggio's best stop came midway through the second period when he made a glove save on the Raiders' leading goal scorer, Tyler Burton, who fired a hard shot from the low slot. Winner of the Ken Dryden Award two years ago, Colgate's Mark Dekanich posted 23 saves, including 10 in the second period, to post his school-record ninth career shutout. The Knights went 0-5 on the power play, including 50.2 seconds on the man-advantage play in the extra session. The Raiders were also 0-of-5 on the power play, and had a string of three consecutive man-advantage opportunities midway through the third period, including 31 seconds of a two-man power play.

Meehan Auditorium, Providence, RI
Final Score: CLARKSON 4 - Brown 3 ot

David Cayer scored with 47.7 seconds remaining in overtime to open a four-game road trip on a successful note. Trailing 2-0 midway through the first period, Clarkson rallied back with three unanswered goals to hold a one-goal advantage early in the third period. The Bears forced the extra session with their third goal at 15:04 of the third stanza. Playing in its second straight overtime contest, and its sixth of the season, the Knights gained the win when Cayer connected on a one-timer off a pass from Adam Bellows for his seventh goal of the year, which cleared the Golden Knights' bench in a celebration at center ice. Nick Dodge started the play by winning the faceoff in the Brown zone. Despite holding an 18-10 shot advantage in the first period, the Knights found themselves in a 2-0 hole midway through the stanza. Clarkson made it a one-goal game at 13:25 with Shea Guthrie's wrap-around tally, and then tied it on Chris D'Alvise four-on-four goal at 15:10 of the middle frame. Steve Zalewski put the Knights on top 3-2 early in the third with a power-play marker. Clarkson out shot Brown 34-29. David Leggio finished with 26 stops, including 12 in the third frame.

Game #30 (February 16, 2008) - Att: 3,486
Ingalls Rink, New Haven, CT
Final Score: Yale 5 - Clarkson 2

Suffering only its second league loss of 2008, Clarkson saw a conference unbeaten streak come to an end at eight games (6-0-2) as Yale broke a 2-2 tie with three unanswered goals in the final eight minutes. For the second straight game, Clarkson overcame an early 2-0 deficit to tie the game, but unlike Friday's win at Brown, the Knights could not capitalize on their chances late to pull out the victory. Yale jumped out to a quick 2-0 lead with a pair of goals 59 seconds apart before the game was five-minutes old. Matt Beca gave the Knights life with his first goal of the game with just 26 seconds remaining in the first period. Lauri Tuohimaa and Steve Zalewski, with his 99th career point, assisted. Beca struck again to tie the game with his eighth goal of the season at 7:40 of the middle frame with Tuohimaa picking up his second assist of the contest. The Bulldogs, however, answered back late in the third period with three straight goals to snap a six-game losing streak to the Knights. Clarkson struggled on the power play, failing to score in nine chances. Yale was 1-of-7 with the man advantage. The Knights out shot the Bulldogs 38-28. David Leggio finished with 23 saves, including 10 in the first period.

Final Score: CLARKSON 3 - Union 3 OT

Steve Zalewski reached a career milestone and a pair of freshmen contributed goals as Clarkson earned one point in league play to clinch a top four spot in the ECAC Hockey standings and gained a first-round bye in the upcoming playoffs. Zalewski notched his 100th career point with a power-play tally and rookies Tom Pizzo and Brandon DeFazio also scored goals to pace the Clarkson offense. David Leggio made 34 saves as Union out shot the Knights 37-27. The teams traded power-play goals in the first period for a 1-1 tie through the opening 20 minutes. Union struck first at 13:15, but Clarkson tied it up as Zalewski connected with a power-play shot from the right circle with just 4.5 seconds left in the period. The Knights came out strong to start the second and took a two-goal lead just over two minutes into stanza with Pizzo scoring 59 seconds in and DeFazio netting one at 2:07. Union knotted the game at 3-3 with a pair of goals 1:51 apart late in the middle frame. The Dutchmen had a break-away with 7.8 seconds left in overtime, but Leggio made a big pad save to turn away the scoring attempt to preserve the tie.

Final Score: CLARKSON 3 - Rensselaer 1

Benefiting from strong defensive play, backed up in goal by David Leggio, Clarkson ran its unbeaten streak over Rensselaer to four games (3-0-1) and came away with three of four points in NY's Capital District region over the weekend to retain its first-place lead in ECAC Hockey. Nick Dodge led the offense with a pair of goals in specialty-teams play, including his school-record ninth career shorthanded tally. Scott Freeman gave the Knights a 1-0 first period lead with an unassisted marker at 8:08. Clarkson made it 2-0 midway through the second when a lengthy power-play opportunity came to a successful conclusion as Dodge scored with just 13 seconds left in a five-minute major. Clarkson's captain sealed the win with an empty-net score with 44 seconds remaining as RPI was on the power play and had its goaltender pulled for a 6-on-4 man-advantage. The Engineers spoiled Leggio's shutout bid, scoring on the power-play with one second left. Clarkson out shot the Engineers 31-17. The Knights were 1-of-7 on the power play, while RPI went 1-of-6 with the man advantage.

Final Score: CLARKSON 4 - Princeton 3

In a match up between the top two teams in the conference, Clarkson rallied to beat Princeton to win the ECAC Hockey regular-season title. Four different Golden Knights scored goals and David Leggio made 26 saves as the Green and Gold claimed the program's 10th conference regular-season crown, clinching the title for the first time in Potsdam since 1981. Trailing 3-2 entering the third period, Clarkson scored twice over the final 20 minutes to gain its first title since 2001. The Knights tied the game early in the third as defenseman Phil Paquet took a behind-the-net pass from Lauri Tuohimaa and sent a fluttering shot in to make it a 3-3 game 72 seconds into the final frame. Midway through the third, Nick Dodge came through with the game-winner when he redirected a Grant Clitsome shot from the point for a power-play marker at 11:43. Matt Beca gave Clarkson the early lead, but the Tigers came right back with a pair of specialty teams goals to take a 2-1 lead after the first. Steve Zalewski made it 2-2 at 17:26 of the second, but with just 59 seconds left in the middle frame, Princeton connected for its second power-play goal to take a 3-2 lead after 40 minutes.

Final Score: CLARKSON 8 - Quinnipiac 0

Highlighted by four goals from the Class of 2008, Clarkson closed out the regular season in style to complete a weekend sweep. The Golden Knights jumped out to a commanding 4-0 first-period lead and never looked back as they extended their home unbeaten streak against conference foes to 22 straight games (17-0-5). The eight-goal win was Clarkson's largest margin of victory since defeating Rensselaer 11-0 on November 22, 1997. Thirteen players recorded at least a point, including 11 forwards. Defenseman Bryan Rufenach tallied the first and last goals, and in between Grant Clitsome, Chris D'Alvise, Steve Zalewski, Matt Beca, Mike Arciero and David Cayer also found the back of the net. Clarkson excelled in specialty teams play, going 2-of-6 on the power play and scoring three shorthanded goals, while killing off six Quinnipiac man advantages. David Leggio (12 saves) and Tim Potter (14 stops) combined for Clarkson's fifth shutout of the season.

ECAC Hockey Quarterfinals - Game 1
Cheel Arena, Potsdam, NY
Final Score: CLARKSON 1 - Colgate 0

Game 1 of the ECAC Hockey Quarterfinal series lived up to its billing as a defensive match up as the regular season champion Golden Knights, behind 19 saves from senior David Leggio, shut out Colgate. Clarkson withstood some early pressure by the Raiders and made the most of its first power play to extend its unbeaten streak against ECAC Hockey foes at Cheel Arena to 23 straight games (18-0-5). The Knights out shot Colgate 25-19, but Leggio, who ran his shutout streak against the Raiders to over 141 minutes, was the difference early in the contest. Clarkson finally got on track and took the lead late in its first power play of the game. With 28 seconds remaining in the man advantage, ECAC Hockey's leading goal scorer came through to put the Knights on top, connecting for the first goal between the two teams in five periods. Steve Zalewski found a loose puck in front of the Raiders' goal and swept in his 20th goal of the season. Grant Clitsome and Chris D'Alvise assisted on the game-winner. The Knights shut down Colgate in the final period, limiting the Raiders to just three shots on net. Colgate pulled its goaltender for the extra skater with 56 seconds to play, but Clarkson played strong along the boards and did not allow a shot on goal.

Final Score: Colgate 4 - Clarkson 3

Clarkson's home unbeaten streak over ECAC Hockey foes came to an end on Saturday night as Colgate outduelled the Golden Knights in Game 2 of the league's quarterfinal series. Clarkson battled back three times from one-goal deficits to force a tie, but the Raiders scored the game-winner just 1:58 into the third period to end Clarkson's Cheel Arena unbeaten streak against league opponents at 23 games (18-0-5). After combining for just three goals in their first three meetings this season, Clarkson and Colgate put up two each in the first period on Saturday night. Shut out by David Leggio over the past 141 minutes entering the game, the Raiders wasted little time in solving last season's Ken Dryden Award winner, scoring on their first shot just 4:18 into the opening frame. Nick Dodge and David Cayer tallied for the Knights. The teams continued their offensive flurry in the middle frame with each putting their third goal on the scoreboard. Steve Zalewski netted his team-high 21st of the year for Clarkson. Colgate out shot Clarkson 27-24. Leggio finished with 23 saves, including 12 in the second period.

Final Score: Colgate 3 - Clarkson 2 2OT

The longest game of the season came to a disappointing end for Clarkson. Colgate scored the winning goal at 7:36 of the second overtime in the deciding third game of the ECAC Hockey Quarterfinal series on Sunday night, ending the contest after 87:36 of playoff action. The Knights posted a season-high for shots with a 54-32 advantage over the Raiders, including a 14-11 margin in overtime play. David Leggio made 29 saves with 10 coming in overtime. Clarkson struggled on the power play going 0-of-8 with the man advantage, while Colgate was 2-of-9 with the extra attacker. Clarkson came out strong to open the game, and held a 15-4 shot margin in the first. The Knights struck first while killing off a four-minute Colgate power play midway through the stanza with a shorthanded tally by Chris D'Alvise. After killing off three Colgate power plays in the first, the Knights' penalty troubles caught up with them in the middle frame as the Raiders went ahead with two power-play goals to hold a 2-1 lead through 40 minutes. Clarkson tied it up early in the third on Scott Freeman's fifth goal of the season. Clarkson held a 10-6 shot advantage in the first 20-minute overtime.

Game #38 (March 28, 2008) - Att: 4,175
NCAA East Regional - First Round
Times Union Center, Albany, NY
Final Score: CLARKSON 2 - St. Cloud 1

David Leggio backboned a stingy defensive effort and David Cayer and Shea Guthrie provided timely goals as Clarkson recorded its first win in NCAA Tournament play in 12 years. After a scoreless first period, St. Cloud took the opening lead early in the second frame with its lone goal at 4:08. The Knights answered back late in the period to make it 1-1 through 40 minutes. Cayer knocked in a rebound off of freshman defenseman Bryan Rufenach's shot from the point. Cayer drove to the net, picked up the puck and wristed a shot through traffic that deflected in off a stick in front, snapping a lengthy scoring drought in NCAA play for the Green and Gold. Cayer's 10th goal of the season at 14:15 of the second was Clarkson's first goal in tournament action in 116:33. Tyrell Mason also assisted on the tying goal. An outstanding effort by Guthrie lifted the Knights to their first NCAA Tournament victory since 1996. At 4:58 of the third, Guthrie took a pass off the boards from Grant Clitsome, skated past a Huskie defenseman and flipped in a backhand shot. Clarkson played a strong game along the boards and out shot the Huskies 40-25. The Knights were especially strong on the penalty kill, shutting down St. Cloud's potent power play on all six of its man-advantage chances. Leggio posted 24 saves.

2007-08 GAME RECAPS CLARKSON

Game #39 (March 29, 2008) - Att: 4,301
NCAA East Regional - Championship
Times Union Center, Albany, NY
Final Score: Michigan 2 - Clarkson 0

Missed opportunities hampered Clarkson's bid to knock off top-ranked Michigan as the Wolverines held the Golden Knights off the scoreboard en route to a 2-0 victory. The number-one seed in the 2008 NCAA Tournament, Michigan earned the right to advance to the Frozen Four in Denver, CO on April 10 and 12. Clarkson, coming off its first tournament victory in 12 years with Friday's 2-1 win over St. Cloud, came out strong against Michigan. Clarkson leading goal scorer, Steve Zalewski began the game with a shot in close just five seconds after the faceoff, but was denied by Michigan's goaltender. The Knights continued to pressure, but the Wolverines struck first, capitalizing on the power play at 14:23. Clarkson, benefiting from four power plays in the second frame, had numerous chances to tie the score. Bad luck, unfortunate bounces, block shots and a stingy effort by the Michigan penalty killers, however, limited the Knights to just two shots on goal during those man-advantage chances. Michigan, the CCHA regular season and postseason champion, sealed its 23rd Frozen Four appearance with an early goal to start the third, scoring just 26 seconds into the final frame. The Wolverines out shot Clarkson 32-27. David Leggio put in another strong outing in goal with a 30-save effort. Clarkson went 0-of-9 on the power play. Michigan was 1-of-8.
